

Anastasios Spiriadis appointed General Manager of the new Hilton Garden Inn in Mannheim

The pre-opening phase for the international business hotel next to Mannheim railway station, due to open in April 2019, is currently in full swing.

Anastasios Spiriadis has been appointed General Manager of the new Hilton Garden Inn currently under development next to Mannheim's main rail station. Achim Ihrig, CEO ARIVA Hotel GmbH is convinced that "in Anastasios Spiriadis, we have once more entrusted the running of one of our establishments to a highly experienced homegrown hotel expert. As Director of Sales at ARIVA Hotel GmbH, he shared responsibility for the pre-opening of the Radisson Blu Hotel, Mannheim and its first year in operation. He and his team did an excellent job in this respect and I'm confident that the Hilton Garden Inn will enjoy an equally successful launch with this General Manager".

The Hilton Garden Inn next to Mannheim's main rail station is in the pre-opening phase. Spiriadis and his team have their sights firmly set to open in April for this new international business hotel. The Heidelberg native comes from a family of restaurateurs and was quick to discover his inner hosting qualities. During his professional training in the hospitality industry and beyond, he worked for many years in his parent's restaurant. He trained at Heidelberg's renowned School of Hotel Management, where he earned his National Certificate in Hotel Management.

The new General Manager joined ARIVA Hotel GmbH in 2015 as Director of Sales. He came equipped with an excellent level of expertise acquired during his previous jobs as a sales and key account manager, and a corporate account manager. In these previous professional positions, he was responsible for key accounts from the Metropolitan Region and later for MICE portfolios nationwide.
